Newsprint Price
Up $5 a Ton
to $168 for 1973

The Star was advised by a letter dated Dec. 11 that its newsprint supplier, Southland Paper Mills, Inc., of Lufkin, Texas, is raising the price of paper $5 a ton effective Feb. 1, 1973. The hike was posted a week ago by Canadian mills, which produce most of the newsprint consumed in the U.S., and the domestic mills are going along with it.

That puts the carload price of newsprint delivered in Hope at $168 per ton. It was $143 a ton when we posted the present subscription prices, Jan. 1, 1969 for the mail and May 26, 1969 for city carrier delivery—an increase of $25 a ton, or 17.4 per cent.

Back in 1968 circulation income covered 26.2 per cent of the cost of producing the newspaper. The percentage by 1971 had dropped to 25.7—and for 11 months of 1972 it is down to 24.1.

Booming advertising is the reason we haven't changed subscription rates before now. But there is a limit beyond which we can't absorb climbing circulation expense—which is tied to paper and delivery costs in the city, and paper and postage costs on mail subscriptions.

But we won't cross that bridge until we come to it. We have a car of newsprint scheduled for delivery Jan. 1 at the present $163 price, so it will be the Spring of 1973 before we have to decide on subscription rates.

One of the harshest publishing problems is the astronomical rise in postage charges. We run more pages today, with greater total weight, but mail circulation is only two-thirds what it was 40 years ago when we deposited $30 a month for second-class postage. In recent years we have been making monthly deposits of $150, $175, and $300—and only this month had to further increase the deposit to $225.

While television has had a major hand in wiping out America's best-known general magazines—Collier's, Saturday Evening Post, Look, and Life (they depended on national advertising while the newspapers' support is local)—in its farewell editorial last week Life pointed out that the tremendous rise in second-class mail rates will eventually cost the magazine industry $130 million annually—"more than twice the profits earned by all magazines in 1970."

Paper and postage are costs beyond the control of any publisher.

Newspapers are pretty hot over the mills' Feb. 1 price hike. Frank Daniels, Jr., of Raleigh, N.C., president of the Southern Newspaper Publishers Association, of which The Star is a member, suggested Thursday that it was time the publishers looked into the business of acquiring their own newsprint mill. But the fact is our own supplier, Southland at Lufkin, started up in 1940 with publisher backing, and it, too, goes along with the pricing set by the Canadian mills.

There is this curious fact about a newsprint mill: It is forced to accept a universal price schedule because it has to have connections with other mills so its publisher customers will have a source of supply should it be closed by a strike, fire, or natural disaster. I know this because when Southland of Lufkin had its one and only strike The Star was promptly advised of an alternate source of newsprint supply.

So if a group of publishers did start up their own mill it would in all probability tie up with other mills for self-protection, which action would bind it to the fixed Canadian-U.S. price schedule—just as in the case of Southland at Lufkin.

Shooting at Southern U. is object of committee report

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — A special state investigating committee says it's up to local authorities to determine possible personal criminal liability in a student-police confrontation at Southern University in which two young blacks died.

In a preliminary report on the Nov. 16 shooting, the biracial committee said the fatal shot came from an area where six men had gathered, "an area where sheriff's deputies had deployed."

But the report did not say specifically that the shot which killed Denver A. Smith of New Roads, La., and Leonard D. Brown of Gilbert, La., was fired by a sheriff's deputy, nor did it identify the six men in the group.

But Atty. Gen. William J. Guste Jr., in releasing on Thursday the report of the 13-member committee he headed, said: "I think it is a fair assumption that it (the shot) came from one of the deputies."

He said the committee did not attempt to determine who exactly fired the fatal shot of No. 4 buckshot because "the matter may involve personal culpability and addresses itself more properly to a grand jury."

"We have no evidence as to whether the shooting was accidental or deliberate ... We know the general area from which the shot came, and we know who occupied that area."

He said the committee's evidence would be submitted to the East Baton Rouge Parish district attorney's office.

Smith and Brown were shot after a group of students gathered in front of the predominantly black university's administration building refused police orders to leave the area.

Some 55 sheriff's deputies and 30 state patrolmen had been called to the SU campus by university President Leon G. Netterville.

The confrontation climaxed several weeks of unrest at SU's Baton Rouge and New Orleans campuses over student demands for more voice in affairs of the nation's largest black university and the firing of Netterville, a black.

Police said immediately after the shooting that the violence was touched off when a tear-gas grenade was thrown at police from the ranks of the students.

The committee, which began its inquiry Nov. 27, viewed reels of television film, interviewed 32 witnesses and heard reports on the testimony of 225 others, also drew these conclusions:

—A group of students entered the administration building and prevented normal use of the building on the day of the shooting. That conduct was "improper."

—There was no evidence to indicate that any of the students involved in the confrontation carried "firearms, tear gas, grenade or artillery simulators or launching devices at the time of the confrontation."

—A state police lieutenant mistook a superior's observation for a command and bowled the first tear-gas canister into the crowd of students, touching off a wild melee which culminated in the shooting.

—Only one shell of No. 4 buckshot was fired, and pellets from the shell killed both Smith and Brown.

—Deputies were allowed to have live shotgun ammunition in their weapons but had been instructed that they were not to advance it to the firing chambers until specifically ordered to do so.

Apollo 17: United in space

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — Three American astronauts, united again after the Apollo program's final and most bountiful moon-landing expedition, lingered in lunar orbit today surveying the surface below for still more knowledge. Gone was the landing ship Challenger, which had carried Apollo 17's Eugene A. Cernan and Harrison H. Schmitt to the surface for 75 hours and then returned them safely to the command ship America and reunion with Ronald E. Evans.

In the early morning hours, Challenger was thrust away from the command ship, and a radio signal from Mission Control sent it crashing into the moon.

Today, and for most of Saturday until they start their journey home, the astronauts' task was to probe the moon with cameras and sophisticated sensing devices. They were in an orbit 69 miles above the surface.

Cernan and Schmitt completed man's most successful moon visit ever late Thursday when they rocketed off the lunar surface with a record cargo of moon samples and film.

After transferring the precious lunar treasure into America, the astronauts cast off Challenger, freeing it for destruction in the cause of science. The lander, which cost $40 million, could not have been returned to earth with the command ship.

"It seems an unfitting finish to a super bird," said Cernan, during his last moments aboard the craft he had flown to a near-perfect landing Monday in the moon valley of Taurus-Littrow. "But it's got one more job to do."

On radio commands from earth, Challenger fired its rocket thrusters and sent itself speeding to an impact near the Taurus-Littrow valley.

Force of the impact caused a seismic shock which excited quake-detection instruments left on the moon by Apollo 17 and by previous Apollo missions.

In a spectacular lunar departure, Challenger popped off its flat-topped landing stage amid a shower of debris and soared upward into the black lunar sky over Taurus-Littrow. The craft's yellow-flamed rocket was visible to television watchers on earth for about 35 seconds before it vanished from the view of a TV camera left on the moon.

Evans, aboard the larger ship, focused a television camera on Challenger as it rose from its low lunar orbit. The bug-like craft could be seen speeding upward, the distant, silvered lunar surface a racing blur in the background. The landing craft grew larger and larger as it approached the America and the camera until, finally, the shadowed outlines of Cernan and Schmitt, standing at the triangular windows of Challenger, could be seen.

"Good to see you," said Cernan from Challenger to his crewmate, Evans, in America. "Glad to have you back," said Evans.

"America and Challenger are in a good tight Navy formation," said Cernan, a Navy captain and former jet pilot.

The ships came together at a speed of less than one mile per hour while they orbited the moon at about 4,000 m.p.h.

Truman is still battling

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Harry S. Truman's kidneys continued to weaken today and the 86-year-old former president remained in very serious condition.

Research Hospital and Medical Center said Truman slept only in short intervals during the night and his kidney output continued to decrease despite medication.

Truman was hospitalized 30 days ago for lung congestion and bronchitis, but a weakened heart and failing kidneys have become major obstacles in his fight to stay alive.

At 10 a.m. EST, Truman's pulse was 94, his blood pressure 124-60 and his temperature 99.8.

Dr. Wallace Graham, Truman's personal physician, continued to describe the 33rd president's condition as "very serious," a step below critical.

A hospital spokesman said there was no report on whether Truman's daughter, Margaret Truman Daniel, had decided whether she would return today to her New York home. She told newsmen last week that she planned to return home today.

Truman was on the critical list four days last week before he was classified as serious on Sunday.

Faces at Christmastime

The Christmas holiday season brings feelings of joy and excitement and sometimes a pensive mood as is reflected in the children's faces above. The reactions were photographed during a presentation of Christmas carols and other traditional Christmas music by the first-year students at Beryl Henry Elementary School. Mrs. Louise Fuller, Wendell McCorkle, and Miss Pat Westbrook are teachers of the group.

Mail early, residents are advised by Wright

Hope Postmaster James H. Wright today urged immediate mailing of all domestic Christmas cards and parcels for out-of-town delivery.

Although most of the suggested mailing dates for domestic holiday mail have passed, every effort will be made to deliver by Christmas Eve all cards, gifts, and other holiday mail deposited within the next few days.

Due to the recent ice storm, incoming mail for local delivery is down in volume about 1.5 per cent from the same period last year, but "we expect an increased volume from the same period last year with volume to peak on Dec. 18 and 19" Wright said.

No cut in state welfare budget

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — An expanded case load and changes mandated by the welfare reform act were among reasons that there will not be a cut in state budgeted welfare funds despite the federal government's takeover of assistance in adult categories, officials said Thursday.

Starting Jan. 1, 1974 under the welfare reform act, the federal government will assume assistance payments to the blind, aged and disabled, who represent 78,000 of the 160,000 persons receiving welfare payments in Arkansas.

Members of the Arkansas Legislative Council wondered why this would not result in a big reduction of the amount of state funds devoted to welfare.

Officials of the state Department of Social and Rehabilitative Services said the reasons included increased operating costs, a bigger workload, changes in matching formulas requiring higher state contributions in other welfare programs, new programs the welfare reform act requires and a need to use state money to maintain adult assistance payments at current levels.

Under the reform act, federal payments to the blind, aged and disabled would be less than current levels, which are supported by contributions from both the state and federal governments.

In the current fiscal year, state funds allocated for welfare programs and administration totals almost $36 million, of more than $14 million less than the $50,368,715 proposed for the next fiscal year under a budget presented Thursday to the Legislative Council.

Next year's budget would include $8,276,812 that the state would have to pay as its share of adult category aid in the first six months of the year before the welfare reform act takes effect. Also included is $3,699,945 in supplemental payments Gov. Dale Bumpers recommends to maintain current levels of assistance in the adult categories in the remaining six months.

In the following fiscal year, the first full year under the reform act, the proposed welfare budget would be $51,114,472.

Dr. Roger Bost, director of the SRS department, said that even if the federal government had not taken over administration of the adult category aid, the state cost in the next fiscal year to maintain current programs at a continuing level, plus the added cost of the formula changes, would have been $52,319,402. That figure includes $16,553,624 as the state's share of adult category assistance.

Without the formula changes, the state cost in the next fiscal year would have been $45,597,- 405, he said.

Bost said that in taking over the adult categories, the federal government would be assuming authority over programs that are relatively easy to administer, leaving to the states the hard-to-administer program of aid to families with dependent children.

Included in the budget proposal made Thursday were Bumpers' recommendations of $312,708 in additional funds for a $5-per-month grant increase of $10 a month in state payments to nursing homes that care for welfare recipients.

Bost said his department had delayed recommending a budget for its Social Services Division, which includes the welfare programs, in order to obtain a better understanding of the effects of the reform act.

He said he recognized the legislators' concern about the rising cost of welfare, but that "we're asking only for what we feel is needed to meet the needs of the people."

Bost said that in Arkansas only 8 per cent of the population was receiving public assistance. He said this was a "very, very minimal figure" when it is considered that 12 1/2 per cent of Arkansans are over the age of 65, six per cent have physical disabilities that preclude them from working and almost a third live below the poverty level.

Partying with Nixon

By FRANCES LEWINE
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon and his top campaign aides have been partying for the past three nights with a select group from around the country who helped finance and promote his re-election.

The total of 167 guests included top labor leaders, prominent Democrats for Nixon, regional finance chairmen and heads of organizations ranging from senior citizens to veteran groups who joined the campaign effort. Cocktail receptions were held Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday with the President and Mrs. Nixon at the White House, followed by dinner across the street at Blair House, a presidential guest house. The Nixons did not attend the dinners.

None of the parties was open for press coverage. But the White House made public the guest lists and said the dinners were given by campaign chairman Clark MacGregor, finance chairman Maurice Stans and Secretary of Transportation John Volpe, who has been nominated by Nixon to be the next ambassador to Italy.

Attending two of the parties were Peter Brennan, head of a building trades union in New York City and Nixon's nominee for secretary of labor, and departing White House counsel Charles W. Colson, one of Nixon's key political operatives.

Another guest was Kenneth H. Dahlberg of Minneapolis, Midwest regional finance chairman for the Nixon campaign. Dahlberg figured in the transfer of a $25,000 campaign contribution that found its way into a Miami bank account controlled by one of the defendants in the break-in and alleged bugging of the Democratic national headquarters.

Hijacker gives up in Canada

MONTREAL (AP) — An armed young Canadian estranged from his pregnant wife surrendered to his father and a psychiatrist to face hijacking charges after ordering a jetliner "first one way and then the other" for 10 1/2 hours across eastern Canada Thursday.

Larry Maxwell Stanford, 21, of Saint John, N.B., released 57 persons unharmed before he walked off a Quebecair BAC111 at the end of a looping flight from Wabush, Nfld., that landed in Montreal, went on to Ottawa and then returned to Montreal.

Armed police waited in a panel truck at the tail of the jet until a government plane brought the youth's father, John Stanford, from Labrador City, Nfld., to meet his son.

Dr. Bruno Cormier, a Montreal psychiatrist, also talked to young Stanford, who during the flight earlier had asked to be flown to Vancouver, on the west coast, and to Winnipeg, in mid-Canada.

"He changed his mind every minute," an official said. "The plane went first one way, then the other."

Stewardess Josette Cote was credited with persuading Stanford to let the plane return to Montreal from Ottawa and to surrender.

"Apparently she convinced him he was a sick man and should see a doctor," an official said.

Quebecair Vice President Andre Lizotte said Stanford pulled a .22-caliber rifle on the station manager at the Wabush airport, in the west Labrador part of Newfoundland, and forced him to get on the plane with him.

The plane landed first at Montreal, where during a 75-minute stop the youth let a stewardess and the 52 other passengers get off. Then it flew on to Ottawa with Stanford, Miss Cote, another stewardess, the pilot and copilot aboard. After 15 minutes in Ottawa, they returned to Montreal to await Stanford's father and the psychiatrist.

The older Stanford said his son had been living with him about six weeks in Labrador City, five miles from Wabush, and worked part time for a lumber firm.

The young man's wife said in Saint John that he left her in September and she last heard from him more than a month ago. The couple have one son, nearly a year old, and are expecting their second child early next month.

The airline vice president said the line has been taking no precautions against hijacking at such small airports as Wabush because it never expected such an occurrence in a small community.

Ministers Commend Retiring Educator

When Jesus issued the Commission to go ye therefore and teach all nations, it is very practically suggestive that James H. Jones, retiring Superintendent of Hope Public School District No. 1-A was one of the persons who honored the call with an affirmative response.

At least this is the way that the clergymen of the Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance see it. And they ought to know since they are the professionals in a teaching preaching ministry.

In their regular meeting of Dec. 2, the Alliance voted unanimously to write a statement of commendation to Mr. Jones relative to the most excellent role he has played in the total cultural and educational development of our community.

The formal statement follows: Whereas, James H. Jones, Superintendent of Hope Public Schools has served with highest dignity, honor and educative competence the citizens of Hope Public School District No. 1-A. And, Whereas, his chronological tenure in the teaching industry itself, is a testimony of his unimpeachable qualifications to serve superbly contemporary civilization across four decades, which required him to keep up with professional growth, evaluate and implement educational and administrative innovations, utilize the varied conceptual value systems of the community constituency, conceive the highest standards in the midst of inevitable change and maintain a compatible working level with the Board of Education as well as to make vital decisions involving graphic problems affecting every facet of a local, state, and national educational program: And, Whereas, countless individuals of our nation's population are holding certification, awards, citations, and diplomas bearing the name of James H. Jones, and entitling the holders thereof to a place of distinction in worldwide society:

Be it resolved that an expression of appreciation from this Alliance be extended to Mr. James H. Jones for job not only well done but a job "best done."

Record missions over N. Vietnam

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. B52 bombers flew a record 16 missions against North Vietnam Thursday and today, the U.S. Command announced. Nearly 50 of the eight-jet bombers dropped about 1,400 tons of explosives, most of it just above the eastern end of the demilitarized zone.

It was the eighth day of heavy B52 attacks on the area where heavy concentrations of North Vietnamese troops and trucks were reported last week. A B52 mission normally consists of three planes. The highest number previously flown against North Vietnam was 15 on Nov. 22, the U.S. Command said.

Goodies for a good holiday

Whether you start from scratch or use one of the many excellent mixes available, you'll find that the aroma of baking and the excitement of shelling nuts, chopping fruits and cutting out cookies will help to give the children a sense of participation.

Try this easy recipe and use a variety of cutters. For the Miniature Pies, aluminum foil eliminates the need for tart pans.

Holiday Cookies

2 cups sifted flour
1 1/4 teaspoon baking powder
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/3 cup Mazola corn oil
1 egg plus milk to make 1/3 cup
3/4 cup sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla

Sift flour, baking powder and salt together into mixing bowl. Add corn oil; blend in well with fork or pastry blender. Mixture will appear dry. Combine egg-milk mixture, sugar and vanilla in bowl. Beat until very light and fluffy. Stir into flour mixture. Chill about 1 hour. Roll out on floured board or cloth until 1/8 to 1/4 inch thick. Cut with floured 2-inch round cutter or as desired. Place on ungreased cookie sheet. Bake in 400°F. (hot) oven until delicately browned, about 9 minutes. Makes 3 dozen (2-inch) cookies. Decorate as desired with Decorator's Frosting or with plain or colored sugar.

Decorator's Frosting

1 cup margarine
1 pound confectioners' sugar, sifted
Food coloring
Combine margarine and confectioners' sugar, beating until smooth. Mix in desired coloring dividing into portions for each color. Press through decorating tube, to make desired shapes. Flowers, leaves, etc., may be shaped several weeks ahead, wrapped in plastic film and stored in refrigerator or freezer. Makes 3-1/4 cups frosting. If frosting becomes too stiff: Blend in a few drops water.

Cookies to please the children and neighbors. Use your own creativity in deciding on forms and decorations. Shop at a Scandinavian craft shop or find some decorative object for a centerpiece.

Miniature Pies

3 cups sifted flour
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
3/4 cup Mazola corn oil
4 1/2 tablespoons cold water

Mix flour and salt in mixing bowl. Blend in corn oil with a fork. Sprinkle all water on top; mix well. Press firmly into ball with hands. If dough is lightly dry, mix in 1 to 2 tablespoons more corn oil. Wipe table top with damp cloth and place on it a piece of aluminum foil 12-inches square. Divide pastry in half and work with 1/2 at a time. Place 1/2 of dough on foil. Flatten slightly, cover with waxed paper and roll out with rolling pin or soda bottle to cover foil completely. With knife, mark off 25 (2 3/8-inch) squares. Cut through dough and foil with scissors. Turn up sides and pinch corners to form a 1 1/4-inch square shell 1/2 inch deep. Fill shells and place on baking sheet. Bake according to filling directions. Makes 50.

Pecan Buds: Put a half pecan or broken pieces in the bottom of each pastry shell. (You'll need about 1/2 cup.) Mix 2 slightly beaten eggs, 2/3 cup dark corn syrup, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla and 1/4 cup sugar together. Spoon about 1 teaspoon mixture over pecans. Bake in 400°F. (hot) oven 20 to 25 minutes or until set.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

Helps at Home—and How!

DEAR HELEN:
We hear a lot about working couples who share housework, but we don't hear much about the problems that arise therefrom.

My husband has been good about taking over chores since I got a job. But HOW he does them drives me wild—and you know men: suggestions are "criticism"; they'll do it their way or not at all.

My husband, for example, can't wash dishes without turning on the hot water full volume and leaving it run while he clears the table, etc. When I mention the waste, he says he doesn't tell ME how to wash dishes!

He treats china like unbreakable stone, chips glasses against the tile, splashes the whole kitchen, and uses my best dish towels to mop up the floor. He figures the more noise you make at housework, the more people realize you're helping. With every crash I get more nervous.

When he does the laundry, he runs the dryer an extra hour after the clothes are dry. He leaves the lawn sprinklers on to the gutter-flooding stage.

I love and need him sharing the chores, but I'm not sure we can afford it. How do other working wives face this problem? —WIFE OF A STUBBORN HELPER
DEAR WIFE:

... Very gingerly!
You're so right: a man approaches housework with slam-bang, dip and chip, clippity-rip, "let the water where it may" abandon and, if his wife complains, she's liable to end up doing it herself while "Sir Hurt and Unappreciated" nurses his ego in front of the TV set.

MY husband Bob conducts a kitchen symphony that shatters the eardrums (among other things) but he gets the job done—usually faster than I would—and gives me grateful time for my typewriter. So what's a few chipped dishes along the way?

If you can't change 'em, appreciate 'em as is. Think of all those working wives who don't have your problem—and only wish they did! —H.

DEAR HELEN:
Fie on "Mr. Curiosity Satisfied" who doesn't want his wife to have a breast-enlargement operation and on you, who agreed with him.

You both missed the point completely (no pun intended). I too wanted this surgery and saved for it so my family wouldn't be deprived. Unlike Mr. C.S., my husband encouraged me, and I now have the body I've always wanted.

My motives were NOT to be a "big-busted female." I wanted to rid myself of padded bras and bad jokes and well-meaning advice to be "grateful for small blessings—they're coming back in style." Most important, I wanted to be a physically complete woman.

No one except my husband knows I've had this surgery. My "implanted" shape is so natural that not even family or close friends have noticed, except to comment that I look slimmer, healthier, prettier...

It's been two years since the operation. I've had no problems. My surgeon assures me it does NOT slow the detection of possible breast cancer.

If a person wants and can afford cosmetic surgery of any kind, he or she should have it. — FORMERLY 32-AA, NOW 34-B

The old and the new

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

There was something old and something new in the American Basketball Association Thursday night.

—Old: Veterans Ron Boone, with 26 points, and Zelmo Beaty, with 23, paced the Utah Stars to a 147-97 slaughter of the Memphis Tams.

—New: Rookie Don Buse scored a career high 18 points and added six assists and three steals as the Indiana Pacers defeated the San Diego Conquistadors 111-104.

—Old: Veteran Julius Keye set an ABA record by blocking 12 shots in the Denver Rockets' 103-99 triumph over the Virginia Squires. He also held Julius Erving, the league's leading scorer, to 24 points, nearly seven below his average.

—New: Rookie James Silas hit a career high 29 points in leading the Dallas Chaparrals to a 121-113 victory over the Kentucky Colonels.

There were no games in the National Basketball Association.

Utah started slowly against Memphis and managed only a 29-24 lead after the first period. But the Stars opened a 61-48 spread at the half and ran roughshod over the last-place Tams in the second half to remain within one game of Indiana in the Western Division.

Indiana rookie Buse surrendered scoring honors to teammates Mel Daniels and George McGinnis, who had 29 apiece, but the first-year man tallied eight points in the third period as the Pacers overcame a five-point deficit to take the lead for good.

Keye's 12th and last block was the biggest one in Denver's victory over Virginia. He blocked Mike Barr's shot from in close with the Rockets clinging to a two-point lead with six seconds left and Warren Jabali converted two free throws for Denver's final margin.

Dallas' Silas connected on nine shots in a row as the Chaps piled up a 23-point lead late in the third period. However, Kentucky cut its deficit to 102-100 before Rich Jones, who scored nine vital points in the fourth quarter, helped Dallas pull away again.

Kentucky's Artis Gilmore and Dan Issel were the game's high scorers with 36 and 31 points respectively, but Coach Joe Mullaney was ejected by referee Norm Drucker with less than four minutes gone after drawing two technical fouls.

Spurrier holds the ace

By HUBERT MIZELL

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Steve Spurrier was perhaps college football's greatest all-time clutch quarterback. When the final card fell, No. 11 from Florida was almost always held the ace.

It won him the Heisman Trophy in 1968.

Spurrier, in first legitimate pro opportunity after five seasons on the sideline telephone, can make the San Francisco 49ers look both happy and silly Saturday afternoon.

My choice is for the 49ers to nudge Minnesota 17-14 in a somewhat-brutal candlestick Park matchup, taking the National Conference West title and the final NFL playoff berth.

A 49er triumph wipes out the hopes of Atlanta and Los Angeles, but a San Francisco loss will toss title chances down the line with the Falcons getting the next try at glory.

With a 7-and-5 frown from last week's upsetting results, we turn for the 14th and final regular season week with a .745 percentage on 85 correct selections and 29 wrong.

Here's the other 12 calls this week:

DOLPHINS 21, COLTS 17—Miami celebrates the first 14-0 NFL season in history in Saturday's other NFL offering, but not before its hottest rival puts a scare the Orange Bowl's 80,000.

STEELERS 24, CHARGERS 17—Finally se-ing up the NFC Central for Pittsburgh.

FALCONS 17, CHIEFS 10—Just in case San Francisco stumbles, Atlanta will be hungry to step in.

RAMS 20, LIONS 10—Just in case the 49ers and Falcons stumble, the Rams will happily enter the playoff castle through the servants' entrance.

BROWNS 27, JETS 17—Cleveland needs this one since, coupled with a San Diego upset of Pittsburgh, it could wrest the NFC Central title for the Browns.

RAIDERS 24, BEARS 10—Same story here, Oakland waiting to see whether it'll be playing at Pittsburgh or Cleveland in the playoffs.

PACKERS 27, NEW ORLEANS 14—Ditto.

COWBOYS 27, GIANTS 14—Dallas, unlike the Redskins, Raiders and Packers, can't afford to fall asleep against the improved Giants or somebody might join Chuck Howley on the clinic list.

BENGALS 20, OILERS 7—Houston already has the No. 1 draft pick in its tattered pocket and Cincinnati has a bit of venom to unleash after blowing last week's showdown with Cleveland.

BRONCOS 30, PATRIOTS 14

—Only American-bred horse ever to win the English Derby was Iroquois, in 1881.

14—Denver goes home smiling for the holidays while New England faces a multitude of decisions about its future.

CARDS 14, EAGLES 10—Larry Wilson's last game as one of the greatest safeties ever. Pardon me Philley, but may he get one more dazzling safety blitz, the maneuver he invented.

Wooden to return home

LOS ANGELES (AP) — UCLA Basketball Coach John Wooden is expected to return home from the hospital this weekend, but a spokesman says he may miss his first Bruin game in a quarter of a century.

A spokesman at St. John's Hospital in nearby Santa Monica said Thursday that Wooden's condition remained unchanged. He was hospitalized with what his physicians describe as a heart condition.

His No. 1 nationally ranked Bruins meet UC Santa Barbara Saturday night at Pauley Pavilion. It would be the first game Wooden has missed since becoming UCLA's basketball coach in 1948.

Okla. coach gets offer from S M U

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Oklahoma State University football coach Dave Smith has been offered a similar position at the University of Southern Methodist in Dallas, the Tulsa Daily World reported Thursday night.

Smith immediately left for Dallas to discuss the offer. A highly placed source in Dallas said the committee thought it "was 99 per cent certain" that Smith would accept. World sports editor Bill Conners said.

Smith said Wednesday that several important questions he raised when interviewed last week had not been answered.

Smith said he could not consider accepting the position until the question were answered.

Robert H. Stewart III, Dallas banker and chairman of a 17 member selection committee, confirmed that his group made a recommendation. He said SMU President Dr. Paul Hardin "will make an announcement the first part of next week."

Smith, 39, was an assistant at SMU for nine years and was offensive coordinator there before taking a similar post at Winnipeg of the Canadian Football League.

In his first year at OSU, he coached the Cowboys to a 6-5 record, their best since 1969, and a tie for third in the powerful Big Eight.

Since no names were mentioned for the job by the selection committee, speculation on the "possible choice" had centered on Smith.

However, it was reported in Atlanta that North Carolina coach Bill Dooley had the SMU post if he wanted it. North Carolina had a 10-1 record this year and will play Texas Tech in the Sun Bowl. Dooley was interviewed by the committee Wednesday.

Another candidate who came to SMU was Washington coach Jim Owens.

"I was shown every courtesy," Owens said after the visit. Fry was fired from the SMU position after 11 years on the job.

Ouachita now 4-0

ARKADELPHIA, Ark. (AP) — Ouachita Baptist University pushed its Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference Record to 4-0 and held on to a share of the lead in the league's basketball race with an 80-73 victory over College of the Ozarks Thursday night.

James Washington scored 29 points to pace the Baptists followed by Morris Scarbrough with 23. Gary Metcalf led Ozarks with 26.

Ozarks, which dropped to 0-4 in AIC action and remained in last place in the standings, led 31-29 at the half.

Linemen's awards? Unheard of

NEW YORK — (NEA) — Linemen are usually so forgettable that even when they win an award, somebody forgets to give them the trophy.

That's what happened to Mike Reid, when he won "The Outland Trophy" for best college lineman in 1969. He found out about the award in Look magazine. "And I didn't receive so much as a handshake, a phone call—or even the trophy," he said.

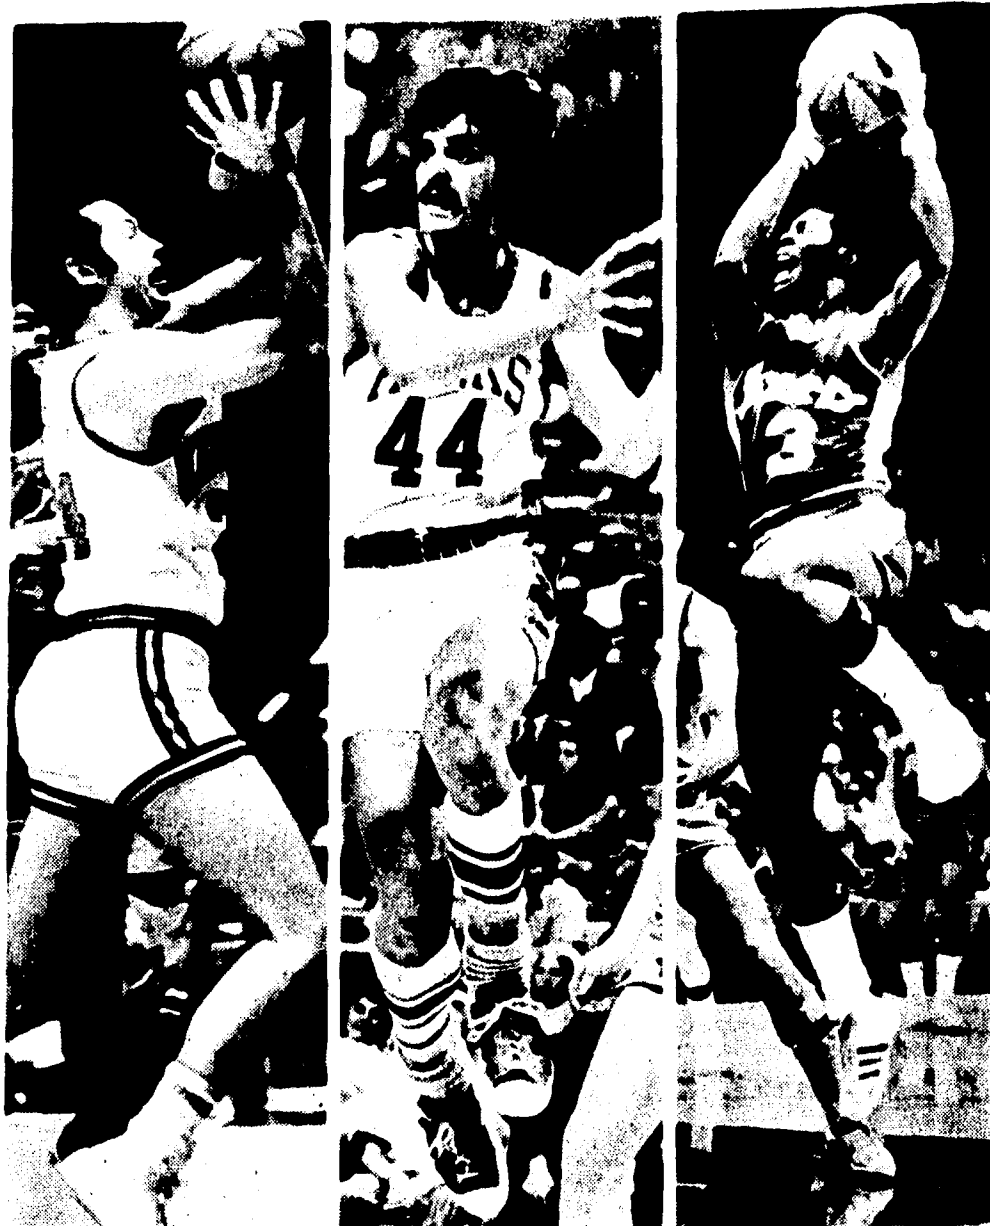

The Outland, which went to Nebraska's Rich Glover this year, was supposed to be the equivalent of the Heisman Trophy. (The Heisman is supposed to go to the best college football player of the year, but it inevitably goes to the "best college back" of the year.)

A group of Rotarians in Houston are trying to change the anonymity of outstanding lineman awards. They are presenting "The Lombardi Award" (to be announced on Dec. 18), in honor of a late pro football coach. Thus, the Rotarians are attempting to sanctify the award.

They are not only giving a banquet for the winner, seeking ballyhoo and donating some of the proceeds to the American Cancer Society, they also plan to actually give the trophy to the chosen lineman. (The four finalists are Glover, Jerry Sisemore of Texas, John Hannah of Alabama, and Tom Brahaney of Oklahoma.)

All Mike Reid can do is read this and weep.

Hope loses to Prescott

By RICKY FAWCETT

Star Sports Writer

Excitement, then disappointment flashed through the scattered fans from Hope as both junior teams dropped tough decisions to Prescott, the Kitty Cats 36-35 and the Bobkittens 34-32.

Pure determination was shown by the Kitty Cats. Midway through the second quarter, it appeared Prescott would demolish the Hope juniors. Somehow the Kitty Cats managed to pull within five, 21-16, at the half.

The second half was the best played half by the Kitty Cats this year. Hope traded baskets with Prescott in the third quarter and still trailed by five, 29-24, at that quarter's end.

It was only until late that the Kitty Cats evened the score with their counterparts. With 30 seconds left in regulation time, Barbie Watson pocketed a basket to tie the game, 31-31.

Two turnovers proved fatal for the Kitty Cats in the overtime period as Prescott cashed in on each and squeaked out that 36-35 victory.

Led by Johnny Murphy, the Prescott Curly Cubs overcame a fourth quarter Hope lead to edge the Bobkittens, 34-32.

Hope experienced a cold streak throughout the fourth quarter, which contributed to the loss.

Tonight the Ladycats play Stamps in the Ouachita Tournament, while the B-Bruins and Kitty Cats take on Willisville.

Holiday tournaments pick up momentum

By TED MEIER

Associated Press Sports Writer

Victor the Bear may be the top performer tonight as the merry whirl of Christmas holiday tournaments in college basketball picks up momentum.

No player he, Victor, will perform at halftime of the Syracuse-Tennessee game at Knoxville that concludes the first round of the Volunteer Classic, one of seven major holiday affairs scheduled.

Victor is listed to wrestle with volunteers from the crowd as part of the entertainment designed to supplement the actual play on the court. Between the Holy Cross-Missouri game that opens the first round the Little Big Orange Basketeers will perform and during Saturday's final activities there will be a fashion show with "Bathing Beauties."

Although drubbed by Marquette 56-30 in their last game the Vols are favored to win the Classic for the seventh straight time. "I think our team is ready to play good basketball," said Tennessee Coach Ray Mears. "But the thing that worries me is that the rest of the field is unusually strong. All three challengers have moved out to a fast start."

Missouri is perhaps the strongest challenger. The Tigers from the Big Eight are unbeaten in five games and have jumped to 12th in the Associated Press rankings.

Providence meets South Carolina and Santa Clara battles Utah in the Ute Classic at Salt Lake City while in the Jayhawk Classic at Lawrence it's San Francisco vs. Army and Texas Tech vs. Kansas.

Purdue takes on Western Kentucky and Southern California is pitted against Auburn in the Trojan Classic at Los Angeles. In the Big Four at Greensboro, N.C., it's North Carolina vs. Duke and Wake Forest vs. North Carolina State.

In the other major tournaments starting tonight, Oregon meets Colorado State and Nebraska faces Kentucky in the UK at Lexington, Ky., while in the Marshall Invitational at Huntington, W. Va., Princeton is pitted against second-ranked Florida State and Baylor goes against Marshall.

Dolphins host Colts in final football weekend

By JOHN R. SKINNER

Associated Press Sports Writer

MIAMI (AP) — The end of one era and possibly the beginning of another come together Saturday when the Miami Dolphins host the Baltimore Colts in the final weekend of regular-season National Football League play.

Quarterback Johnny Unitas, who led the Colts to glory in the late 1950's and the decade of the 1960s, says he won't be in a Colt uniform next year as a sideline observer of his replacement, Marty Domres.

Colt halfback Tom Matte, also benched this season, has expressed similar sentiments and standout tackle Bob Vogel has announced his retirement.

While the leaders of the old Colt powerhouses fall from the limelight in the 1 p.m., EST, game before a capacity crowd of 80,000 in the Orange Bowl and a national television audience, the upstart Dolphins will try to stretch their mark to an unprecedented 14-0 record in the NFL and set two new rushing standards in the process.

Don Shula left the Colts' organization three years ago to coach the downtrodden Dolphins, building them into instant contenders in the American Conference. He hopes to claim only the third NFL team in history to go unscathed through regular season.

The Chicago Bears of 1934 won 13 straight and the 1942 Bears captured 11 in a row.

In the process, Mercury Morris will try to gain 95 yards rushing and the team 105 running yards for new marks.

If Morris succeeds, he will make Miami the first team in the NFL to ever have two runners gain over 1,000 yards in one season. Fullback Larry Csonka already has 1,046.

As a team, the Dolphins can shatter the season rushing record of 2,885 yards set in 1936 by the Detroit Lions.

Larry Brown receives Bert Bell Award

By RALPH BERNSTEIN

Associated Press Sports Writer

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Larry Brown has joined his boyhood heroes and he finds it hard to believe he's done it with only four years in the National Football League.

Brown, the 202-pound running back of the Washington Redskins, was named Thursday winner of the annual Bert Bell Award given to the outstanding pro football player of the year by the Maxwell Club of Philadelphia.

Brown's name was added to a list of pro football's outstanding players—John Unitas, Norm Van Brocklin, Paul Hornung, Andy Robustelli, Jim Brown, Pete Retzlaff, Don Meredith, Leroy Kelly, Roman Gabriel, George Blanda and Roger Staubach.

"I remember when I was real young I used to watch these players on television, and never realized that some day I would be recognized for the same award," Brown said.

The selection of Brown, who has become the only player in National Football League history to pass 1,000 yards total offense four consecutive years, was no surprise. The designation of Brad Van Pelt, Michigan State defensive back, as the Club's college player of the year raised some eyebrows, including Van Pelt's.

The Maxwell group, in selecting Van Pelt, eliminated such standout candidates as Heisman Award winner Johnny Rodgers of Nebraska, Oklahoma's Greg Pruitt, Alabama's Terry Davis, Oklahoma's Rich Glover and Penn State's John Huftnagel. The Maxwell board of directors selects the winner from a final list of six candidates.

"I couldn't believe it," Van Pelt said Thursday over a telephone hookup from East Lansing, Mich. "I didn't really think I could achieve a thing like that ... for a defensive back to win it. It's kind of like a dream come true."

Brown, also speaking over the telephone, told a luncheon group that he was going to guard against complacency, strive to better his accomplishments. He is the third player in NFL history—Jim Brown and Cookie Gilchrist are the others—to gain over 4,000 yards in only four seasons.

Other finalists in the club's pro player of the year consideration were Green Bay's John Brockington, Pittsburgh's Franco Harris, Washington's Billy Kilmer and Earl Morrall of the Miami Dolphins. The last running back to win the award was Kelly in 1968.

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP) — Bud Poile, vice-president and general manager of the Vancouver Canucks of the National Hockey League, has been given leave of absence effective immediately, team President Thomas Scallan announced Thursday.

Scallan said the leave was given on doctors' orders. Poile was in a hospital three weeks ago suffering from what doctors said was exhaustion.

Bruins move to second place tie

Friday Night

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Bruins appeared bent on opening a new frontier, at the New York Rangers' end of the rink. And New York goalie Gilles Villeneuve was in the middle of a replay of the shootout at the O.K. Corral.

The Bruins turned Boston Garden into their private shooting gallery with 55 shots on goal and rode four-goal second period burst to a 4-2 victory Thursday night, moving into a second place tie with the Rangers in the National Hockey League East.

"Those first two periods were the best we've played this season," Boston Coach Tom Johnson said. "Over-all, this was our best game of the year offensively. We also played much tighter on defense."

Amtrak route is adopted

WASHINGTON (AP) — A St. Louis-to-Laredo, Tex., route which is nearly the same as that followed for years by the Texas Eagle trains of the Southern Pacific has been adopted by directors of the National Railroad Passenger Corp.

Their approval was given Thursday to one of five routes for renewal of rail passenger service between the Mexican border and the Midwest.

Baseball record books being rewritten?

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The rewriting of baseball's record books after last season has Atlanta outfielder Hank Aaron holding eight National League records in batting—seven of them major league highs—and tied for three others.

The 37-year-old slugger now holds lifetime major league records for most total bases, 6,172, and runs batted in, 2,037, official National League statistics issued today showed. The old records were 6,134 total bases by Stan Musial of St. Louis, set in 1963, and 1,967 runs batted in by New York Yankee immortal Babe Ruth in the years 1914-1935.

In the 1972 season Aaron was fourth among six National League hitters with slugging percentages above .500. He had .514 in that department where Billy Williams of Chicago led with .606, followed by Willie Stargell of Pittsburgh, .558, and Johnny Bench of Cincinnati, .541.

Five of Aaron's major league records were his at the start of last season, and these he extended to 14 seasons with 30 or more home runs: 18 seasons—and 18 consecutively—with 20 or more homers; 107 lifetime sacrifice flies, and 270 intentional bases on balls.

Aaron's 673 lifetime home runs total replaced the 646 NL high that belonged to Willie Mays of the New York Mets a year ago, and he tied San Francisco's Willie McCovey and the late Gil Hodges of Brooklyn for the most bases-filled home runs in a NL career, 14. Aaron also shares a league record for the most bases on balls in one game—five.

Mays became the major league outfielder who has handled the most fielding chances, with 7,185 for his career. This Speaker, Cleveland's famed Gray Eagle, had held the major league record for this since 1928 with 7,155.

Mays also took over as lifetime strikeout leader in the National League with 1,479. Eddie Mathews of Milwaukee had led with 1,452. Stargell tied the league record of most consecutive seasons with 100 or more strikeouts—running his string to eight years to match Dick Allen, who had his eighth with Los Angeles last year.

Among miscellaneous 1972 season highs were Joe Morgan of Cincinnati with most bases on balls, 115; Lee May of Houston with most strikeouts, 145; Ron Hunt of Montreal with most hit-pitches, 26, to raise his lifetime total to a major league record of 203, or 11 more than the former mark Minnie Minoso established with the Chicago White Sox in 1964.

Marty Perez of Atlanta grounded into the most double plays, 21, and Rick Monday of Chicago the fewest, four.

Holiday Breakfast Star

Bring Christmas spirit to your breakfast table with this scene stealing Holiday Star coffee cake.

Carved and twisted into a three-dimensional star, then sugar glazed, this morning bread is a luscious ornament that reflects the best of the season. Made with enriched flour, it carries a bonus of the B-vitamins, thiamine, niacin and riboflavin, and the mineral iron—all essential to good health.

Coffee cake, especially one as pretty as this, says "love" the way only home baking can.

Holiday Breakfast Star

6 to 8 servings

2 cups enriched flour* 1/4 cup shortening
1 tablespoon baking powder 1/2 to 3/4 cup milk
1 teaspoon salt Fig Filling
3/4 teaspoon ground ginger Orange Glaze

Stir together dry ingredients. Cut in shortening until mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Blend in enough milk to make a soft dough. Turn onto lightly floured surface and knead gently 30 seconds. Divide in half. Roll each half to 9-inch circle. Place one circle on ungreased baking sheet. Spread with Fig Filling, leaving a 1/2-inch margin around outside edge. Top with second circle. Press edges together to seal. Slash top circle to within 1 inch of edge. Lift each point and twist over once. Bake in preheated 450° oven 12 to 15 minutes, or until done. Brush immediately with Orange Glaze. Serve at once warm.

Fig Filling

1 package (8 oz.) dried figs, chopped (about 1 1/2 cups)
1/2 cup chopped pecans
1/4 cup orange juice

In small saucepan combine ingredients; simmer 5 minutes, stirring frequently.

Orange Glaze

2 to 3 teaspoons orange juice
Stir juice into sugar a teaspoon at a time, mixing well. Spoon flour into dry measuring cup; level. Do not scoop.

NOTE: If self-rising flour is used, omit baking powder and salt.

Breakfast problems in this household

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

Dear Dr. Lamb—Breakfast at our house is quite a problem. All health books say to eat a good, nourishing breakfast. None of us care for breakfast food, not prepared or the cooked variety. It is said that proteins are necessary, still what protein is not high in cholesterol? Eggs are limited, liver is high in cholesterol, so are sausages and bacon and ham. Bread is fattening. Really, what do you feel is a good breakfast that is low in fat and carbohydrates, cholesterol and not too many calories? We also have a weight problem and would truly welcome any advice. This is the one meal when we are hungry and do not know what the proper things are to eat. Thank you for your help. We always read your article in the morning. We use a lot of skim milk, cottage cheese and powdered skim milk.

Dear Reader—I get lots of letters asking about breakfast, so you are not alone. Of course, the hot cereals are fine, such as oatmeal. There are a number of other hot cereals that some people like and these do contain a certain amount of protein, particularly if they come from wheat or oats. The protein in whole wheat products contains important essential amino acids. Unless a person has a medical problem that prevents their use, I think one should try to get some protein from cereal, and breakfast is a good place to do this.

Fortified skim milk is an excellent source of protein, so are egg whites, which contain no cholesterol or fat.

It is not true that sausage, bacon and ham are high in cholesterol. Sausage and bacon are very high in fat, but they are not high-cholesterol foods. Lean ham used in moderation is satisfactory for breakfast. So is lean round steak and lean beef. So you could use whites of eggs, and ham periodically without increasing your fat or cholesterol intake excessively. You could have prepared cereals (which I understand you don't like) or home-cooked cereals, which includes oatmeal, home-cooked wheat products and rice. Rice is not rich in protein, however.

Some people enjoy fish, which is an excellent source of protein, for breakfast and most of the lean fishes are relatively low in fat. This does not include herring, sardines and some of the fatty salmon. Canned pink salmon is lower in fat than some other types of salmon and it can be used to make salmon patties, which some individuals like for breakfast, too. You can also use dried beef and make creamed beef on toast, if you like that, or you can use chicken. Some people like creamed chicken on toast even for breakfast.

I understand you are trying to avoid carbohydrates, otherwise I would recommend pancakes (which can be made without either eggs or added fat), which you could serve with syrup, honey and one of the polyunsaturated margarines.

Of course, breakfast let this cup pass from me" (St. Matthew 26:39).

Even the Son of God could not always have His way.
The bitter cup did not pass. Even though Jesus prayed three times for the cup to go away, He always concluded with, "not as I will, but as thou wilt".
He drank it deliberately in a calm majestic mood, while God stood by in loving sympathy.
By drinking that most bitter cup, Jesus became the Saviour of the world. God gave Him strength for the suffering and through this heroic deed, Jesus became perfect.
People, all about us, every day, cry the same prayer, "let this cup pass from me". We tremble at the ordeal ahead. Our faith shrinks to know we must suffer such fate as St. Matthew spoke of. But suffering seasons us. It links us to God, for high adventure and noble service through His church.

Hope's newest motel, North Park Arms, recently opened at the State Highway 29 exit from Interstate 30.

Owned by Mr. and Mrs. Dean Murphy of Hope, the motel is a member of the Best Eastern Motel chain and contains 40 luxurious units, including a two-room executive suite.

Situated on a 23.66-acre tract north of I-30, and containing more than 21,300 square feet of floor space, the North Park Arms was constructed to "give quality accommodations to the traveling public," Murphy said.

Each unit at the North Park Arms is individually heated and cooled with room conditioners; 32 units have two double beds;

18 units have a king-sized bed.

Color TV sets and piped-in music are included in each room. In addition, wall-to-wall carpeting, four color schemes and free telephone service is included with each unit.

The motel also features an automatic wake-up service, 24-hour switchboard and a heated swimming pool.

The Murphys are members of the Arkansas Motel and Restaurant Association.

Murphy announced that a restaurant will open at the site in the near future, and also announced plans for a 30-pad minipark for trailers which will be completed sometime next summer.

IN THE LOBBY—Dean Murphy of Hope stands behind the check-in desk at his new motel — North Park Arms — which opened recently at the State Highway 29 exit of Interstate 30. Murphy and his wife will operate the motel, which features 49 units, including an executive suite. The motel is situated on a 23.66-acre tract just north of I-30. More construction at the site, including a restaurant and a minipark for trailers is planned.

Retailers have happy faces

By JOHN DORFMAN
AP Business Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The happiest face in the Christmas shopping crowd this year may belong to the retailer.

An apparent rise of 5 to 10 per cent in Christmastime sales throughout the nation is bringing good cheer to local merchants and executives of major department-store chains.

With 10 days to go before the holiday, exact results still are uncertain. Some business analysts spoke of a "frenzy of buying" gripping the nation.

However, the National Retail Merchants Association, which represents 26,000 stores, said sales for the three weeks ended Dec. 9 were up only 2.1 per cent from last year's pace.

Last December, retail sales totaled an estimated $42.6 billion.

The NRMA blames bad weather for holding down the increase so far but believes that, before this year's Christmas season is over, last year's figures will be surpassed by about 6 per cent.

Pocket calculators, hot combs and microwave ovens were some of the newest sales sizzlers which Associated Press correspondents found around the country.

More traditional big-price-tag items such as stereos, televisions and cameras also were reported selling well.

A check of major stores around the country showed:

—In Ohio, department stores are reporting the best Christmas shopping season ever. Newspapers are carrying ads for additional sales help; and, in some cities, stores are staying open on Sunday — something which never was done before.

—In Boston, Jordan Marsh Co. said it expected a sales gain of 8 to 10 per cent, though sales so far had been "inhibited by the weather."

—In South Dakota, sales were up despite a subzero cold spell. The manager of a J. C. Penney store described business as "tremendous" and credited improved income for farmers this year as a major factor.

—In Los Angeles, Broadway Department Store said its sales were about 10 per cent ahead of last year's.

The Northeast was lagging behind other areas in sales, the NRMA found. For the three weeks ended Dec. 9, sales in the West, Central and Southeast states were up from 4 to 5.3 per cent, while sales in the Northeast were down 7.6 per cent.

Suit for Farr filed

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Three newsmen have filed a Superior Court suit contending that Los Angeles County is spending public funds illegally to keep newsmen William Farr in jail.

The suit, filed Thursday, contends the money is being illegally spent because Farr was jailed in violation of his constitutional rights.

Sheriff Peter Pitchess was named as principal defendant. Superior Court Judge David A. Thomas ordered Pitchess to appear in court next Wednesday to show why Farr should not be released. But Thomas refused, however, to issue an immediate restraining order freeing Farr.

Farr, a Los Angeles Times reporter, has been in jail for 18 days under an indefinite sentence for contempt of court.

The suit was filed by Rudy Villaseñor, a retired Times reporter; Mel Leroy Lieder, a Los Angeles Herald-Examiner photographer, and Jesus A. Barker, a KABC news writer.

Farr was jailed after he refused to disclose the source of a story he wrote two years ago about the Charles Manson "family."

The story was based on a written statement submitted to the court by Virginia Graham, a one-time cellmate of Susan Atkins who was a Manson "family" member.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Julie Nixon Eisenhower will be on hand Saturday when New York University dedicates an $11-million library named in honor of Elmer Holmes Bobst, a long-time friend of her father, President Nixon.

Bobst, the former head of a New Jersey pharmaceutical firm, donated the money for the library.

The dedication date falls on his 88th birthday.

HELSINKI (AP) — President

Urho Kekkonen says his belief that he has lost the confidence of the neighboring Soviet Union has prompted his decision against seeking re-election in 1974.

In a letter to the chairman of the Finnish-Soviet Friendship Society on Thursday, Kekkonen blamed the loss of confidence to news leaks on private conversations he had with Soviet leaders last summer.

Details of Kekkonen's talks with Soviet Communist party boss Leonid I. Brezhnev were recently published by a Swedish newspaper. Kekkonen said a memorandum on the talks had been distributed only to a small group.

TEL AVIV (AP) — U.S. Ambassador Walworth Barbour has received one honor and is due for another on Monday.

On Thursday, the name of American International School was changed to Walworth Barbour American International School in honor of the 64-year-old career diplomat from Cambridge, Mass.

And on Monday Barbour will receive an honorary doctor of philosophy degree from Hebrew University.

The international school is in suburban Kfar Shmaryahu and, since 1958, has been involved in the education of children of American embassy personnel, foreigners and U.S. immigrants. It has an enrollment of 360 primary and secondary students.

Marble Falls: It's snow-skiing time in Arkansas

DOGPATCH—Too much snow and ice have delayed the opening of the South's newest skiing and ice skating resort.

Harrison was scheduled to open Friday, Dec. 15. But ice, sleet and snow blanketing the Mid-South and Southwest during recent days prevented delivery of custom-tooled parts crucial to the operation of the resort's skilift and snowmaking equipment.

The resort opening is now set for Tuesday, Dec. 26.

The parts, air-freighted from Denver last week, have sat on a loading dock awaiting clearing of ice, sleet and fog that have prevented air travel into Arkansas. Now the resort's developer, Jess Odom of Little Rock, hopes the wintry weather will resume once the parts are delivered.

"Though we still might have met the Dec. 15 opening," said Odom, "it would not have allowed time for adequate safety testing of the chairlift."

The ski lodge and ice skating rink will be the centers of activity during the first days of the premiere season, according to Odom. The tri-level Alpine lodge dominates the summit of the skiing area and commands a magnificent view of the 220-foot vertical drop of the intermediate slope, the chairlift and the surrounding Ozarks.

Its facilities include ski equipment rental, pro shop and lockers. Food and beverages will be served in the top-floor conviviality room, appointed with a circular fireplace and piano for gatherings.

Rustic steps lead downhill from the ski lodge to the 50- by 140-foot ice skating rink housed in one of the resort's rustic Alpine-style structures.

The early winter weather and precipitation that foretold good skiing weather also caused delays in construction of some of the resort's other facilities. "These will be completed at the earliest possible date," says Odom, "and all will be in operation early in our three-month winter sports season that ends in mid-March."

Also open will be the Antique Auto Museum, housing displays of classic and vintage cars from Europe and America. Conducted tours will also be offered to nearby Dogpatch Caverns. "The Scrambler," an exciting mechanical amusement ride, will also be in operation.

Odom said that food and lodging for the first days of operation will be available near the park's entrance in the Dogpatch Motel and Restaurant, and that nearby Harrison and Jasper have fine motel accommodations.

Excellent lodging in the new

Marble Falls Inn will be available soon, according to Odom, and the motel's initial 64 rooms will be doubled by May 15. Within a matter of weeks, several private Swiss chalets being built on the thousand-acre complex will be ready for occupancy.

The battery of snow cannons which provide cover for the two 500-foot beginners' slopes and the 1,500-foot intermediate slope is in operation and beginning to pile up ski snow.

The cannons are fed by a huge air compressor and by water from one of the deepest wells ever dug in Arkansas.

Boyleing it down

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — All right, kiddies, let's settle down in our seats. The class in double-talk is ready to begin.

Those of you who remained awake during our last session will remember what double-talk is. It is the art of sounding convincingly meaningful while saying something which is usually just the opposite of what you are really thinking.

Double-talk is intentionally tactful, helpful and healing despite its total insincerity. You don't believe what you're saying, but you say it so that it sounds consoling.

Here for your guidance, class, are a few common examples of double-talk in a variety of situations. The quoted remarks are what the person said, followed in each case by what he actually was thinking.

"Are you borrowing my umbrella, Jane, dear?" — I caught you red-handed this time, didn't I, you little thief?

"I think these weekly early morning staff idea sessions will prove highly productive." — At least I'll be able to get all you goldbricks to work on time once during the week.

"It's an honor to reward your 50 years of faithful service to the firm with this token gift of a gold watch." — How could a guy spend half a century without ever getting off his backside!

"I love you just as much as I did the day I met you at the altar." — Once a crazy, mixed-up kid, always a crazy, mixed-up kid.

"There are times when we have to put up with life as it is, not as we would wish it to be." — Weep some more, my lady. You haven't got half the lumps you deserve yet.
